Preparers who receive their Record of Completion will also be included in a new Public Directory that will be added to the IRS website by January 2016 for taxpayers to use in search of qualified tax preparers. In addition, if you have your Record of Completion, you will be able to represent your client in limited situations. The Record of Completion will enhance your level of professionalism for your practice.

Ordering Info: Exempt vs. Nonexempt preparers – If you have passed the RTRP Competency Test given by the IRS between November 2011 and January 2013, you are exempt. You will order the 15 HR Course.
